8th June, 2025
Pentecost Sunday

Pentecost – the Gift of the Holy Spirit

John Herd PP

A number of children in our parish are preparing for Confirmation. Normally it is the Archbishop who would administer the sacrament but this year I will be the minister. In our preparation we have been talking about the gifts of the Holy Spirit. A gift is something special; someone has gone out of their way to prepare the gift and have given it with love. So, if we receive a gift it's important not to throw it away; and bad manners to leave it unwrapped in a cupboard; some gifts are meant to be used all through life.

We speak of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. Wisdom: to know what is truly important; Understanding: to know why something is important; Counsel or Right Judgement: to judge between right and wrong and choose what is right; Fortitude: to persist in doing the right thing with courage, even if it's hard; Knowledge: to know God and God's plan for salvation; Piety or Reverence: to know that the God who created the universe deserves love and praise; Awe and wonder or Fear of the Lord: having the right perspective of God's power and love and to be amazed at the greatness of God.

I wonder when was the last time we consciously used those gifts? I mean, when did we ask the Holy Spirit to show us what is truly important, or why it is important, or to help me judge what is right or wrong and do the right, etc? I have consciously tried it recently and have felt empowered and clearer in my thinking. The Holy Spirit is given to us in Baptism but like a seed; at Confirmation the gift of the Holy Spirit is given more deliberately. In Acts 1:4 Jesus says to the disciples to wait in Jerusalem for the promise of the Father, that is, the Gift of the Holy Spirit.

St Cyril of Jerusalem (AD 350) explains the symbolism of the Holy Spirit described as water: "the water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life" (Jn 4:14). Cyril says Christ calls the grace of the Spirit water because all living things depend on water: plants, animals. Water comes down as rain and although it is always the same, it produces different effects, one in a palm tree, one in a vine etc. It adapts itself to the needs of every creature that receives it. Like a dry tree which bears shoots and leaves when watered, so the soul bears fruits of holiness when repentance has made it worthy of receiving the Holy Spirit. The Spirit comes gently, like a fragrance, not as a burden for he is very light. The Spirit comes with the tenderness of a friend and protector to save, to heal, to teach, to counsel, to strengthen, to console. The Spirit enlightens the mind.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle within them the fire of your love!

Does anyone have a spare blanket? Some newly arrived parishioners have asked if we can help. If you have a spare one, please leave at the Parish House for me. Thanks, Fr JH

Murphy House

Parish Finance Committee and Parish Pastoral Council, and myself, made the decision to demolish Murphy House. It is a house built in 1903 and purchased by the parish in the 1970s. Last year there was an arson attack which caused extensive damage. It was distressing for many people including our local Vinnies who stored goods there, and the ladies sewing group. But the parish does not consider it worthwhile to spend a lot of money on restoration. The Holdfast Bay Council advised us that it is not heritage listed and the parish does not need the Council's permission to demolish. It is a safety risk and we continue to pay for fencing.

Following a motion at Council, Mayor Amanda Wilson wrote to the Archdiocese enquiring about plans for the site. Dr Carlo D'Ortenzio, Diocesan Financial Administrator, replied that the Glenelg parish has a proud history of caring for heritage properties, such as Our Lady of Victories Church, the former Dominican Convent, St Mary's Hall etc. The parish has spent a lot of money on restoration and will need to re-roof OLV Church in the near future. It is simply the case that the parish cannot afford to undertake costly repairs to Murphy House. It is intended that the site be a temporary carpark until we gain a clearer picture of our needs. The parish is currently working with St Mary's School to develop a Masterplan for the whole property. If there is a need in the future for a new parish building it would be preferable to build a modern facility tailored to our needs.

I welcome your feedback.

Fr John Herd PP

The disciples are still experiencing the after-effects of the Resurrection of the Lord; they are still learning the significance of his death, his rising to new life, and his appearances to them. Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

Gospel:                      John 14:15-16, 23-26
The Holy Spirit will teach you everything.

Memorial Acclamation:

Important information for parish teams:

Parish Synodal Checklist

As part of the implementation phase of the Global Synod for a Synodal Church, the Archdiocesan Pastoral Services Team has published a Parish Synodal Checklist based on the actions listed in the Final Document of the Synod for a Synodal Church. The checklist is not an audit, but a self-evaluation tool for parishes and communities. Parish leaders, councils and parishioners may find the checklist helpful as a way to explore the Synod's Final Document as well as to enhance the synodal culture of the community. The Parish Synodal Checklist is downloadable from <https://adelaide.catholic.org.au/our-works-and-community/pastoral-services/publications>. If you have questions or would like assistance with using the checklist, or if you want to provide feedback about the checklist, please contact Peter Bierer, Asst. Director of Pastoral Life and Mission, pbierer@adelaide.catholic.org.au

Archbishop O'Regan's Pastoral Letter on the Occasion of the Convocation of the 2026 Archdiocesan Synod

"As the Father Sent Me, So I Am Sending You"

A new pastoral letter from the Archbishop is available for distribution from Pentecost Sunday June 8 onward. You may wish to share the attached QR Code in your bulletin or newsletter, on a flyer or poster, or PowerPoint slide. If you require any assistance with sharing the message, please contact Dale Oria in the Pastoral Services team at doria@adelaide.catholic.org.au.

Children's Sacrament Preparation Program Survey

For Sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation

The Archdiocese is currently reviewing the Children's Sacrament Preparation Program. Those who lead or coordinate parish and school sacramental preparation for school-aged children are invited to fill out this brief online survey <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/sacramentprep>.

If you have any questions or would like to speak to the lead reviewer, please contact Tess Harford in the Diocesan Centre at tharford@adelaide.catholic.org.au

CDF - Commonwealth banking update

As previously communicated, the Archdiocese has established banking services with the Commonwealth Bank (CBA). All parishes have been provided with details of these banking arrangements and most parishes are doing their banking at a CBA branch, or an Australia Post office branch using CBA deposit books.

Recently, we have had some instances where the correct agent number is not being used for deposits at CBA branches. This causes delays/problems in having deposits directly and correctly credited to a parish's CDF account. For more information please click here to read the CDF memorandum regarding this matter.
